

2021 Annual Meeting Agenda

Thursday, September 30, 2021

Times are in Eastern Time (New York / Washington DC)

09:00-09:05 Opening Remarks

- Speakers:
  - Jim Blubaugh, Director, International, Office of Transportation and Air Quality, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency
  - Alexandre Paquot, Head of Unit, Road Transport, DG Climate Action, European Commission

09:05-09:10 Opening Remarks

- Speaker: Alessandro Caretoni, Head of Division, Office of Renewable Energy Sources, Energy Efficiency and Alternative Fuels, Italian Ministry of Ecological Transition

09:10-09:15 Group photo, Overview of TTG and activities

- Speaker: Diana Galperin, Office of Transportation and Air Quality, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency

09:15-09:30 Icebreaker

09:30-09:40 Videos from country participants

- Country participants are invited to submit a short video highlighting 2020-2021 updates on transportation and transportation policies

09:40-10:10 Panel Presentation of Policy Development of 2021 and Outlook for 2022

- Panel Speakers:
  - Elizabeth Connelly, Energy Technology and Transport Analyst, International Energy Agency (IEA)
  - Canadian Government, Mark Cauchi, Director General, Energy and Transportation Directorate, Environment and Climate Change Canada
  - Drew Kodjak, Executive Director, ICCT: Overview of transport policy developments in select G20 countries
- Topics: What progress have countries made in setting net-zero targets? What does this mean for global transportation? How is Canada developing domestic transportation policies to meet its climate targets? What are other policy updates to the transportation sector to address climate change and air pollution?

10:10-10:30 Information and Q&A on ZEV Transition Council

- Speaker: Stephanie Edwards, Head of Sector Strategy for International Climate Change, Department for Business Energy and Industrial Strategy, The United Kingdom
- Topics: What is the ZEV Transition Council, and what is it planning to do next?

(Agenda continues on next page)

10:30-10:45 Break

10:45-11:15 Panel Presentation and Q&A: Pace of the global transition to ZEV technologies

- Panel Speakers:
  - Josh Miller, Modeling Center Manager, ICCT
  - Sara Baldwin, Director of Electrification Policy, Energy Innovation
- Topics: ICCT to present study on the pace of the global ZEV transition, Sara Baldwin will discuss key findings from the study: Goldman School of Public Policy at University of California Berkeley: 2035 The Report: Transportation.

11:15-11:35 Speaker Presentation: Zero-emission HDVs—where to start? ICCT overview of HDV ZEV policy options in advanced economies and emerging markets

- Speaker: Ray Minjares, HDV program director, ICCT

11:35-11:45 Break

11:45-12:00 Speaker Presentation: H<sub>2</sub> as Opportunity for ZEHDVs, 2021 G20 President, Italian Republic

- Speaker: Viviana Cigolotti, Department of Energy Technologies and Renewable Sources, ENEA-Italian National Agency for New Technologies, Energy and Sustainable Economic Development
- Topics: Use of H<sub>2</sub> for HDV in Italy

12:00-12:30 Breakout Discussion

- Goal: What is the TTG's role to inform HDV ZEV policies in G20 countries and beyond?
- Divide into groups and discuss:
  - What is feasible in your region for accelerating the transition to ZEV HDVs?
  - Discuss: Pilot programs, voluntary programs, CO<sub>2</sub> standards and ZEV regulations, fiscal incentives, charging infrastructure, low-carbon fuel policies, delivery/urban vehicles

12:30-12:40 Closing Remarks

- Speakers:
  - Jim Blubaugh, Director, International, Office of Transportation and Air Quality, U.S. Environmental Protection
  - 2022 G20 President, Republic of Indonesia

12:45 Adjourn